ARSADI – Surrender

It’s 4 a.m. in this big old town
And the summer’s moon is the only light around
A breeze keeps my mind alive
Feel the smell of wet road from the rain tonight

I’m looking out for what it seems to be Another hopeful teenage dream
Don’t let me stop
Until the night is over

I surrender
I surrender for your love
As if we only got tonight

I surrender
I’ll surrender for your love
As if we only got tonight

I gotta learn from my mistakes
But this night is a pain escape
Yeah, I got a lot at stake
But a sleeping town keeps my hopes awake

Gotta stay in this stage light that I need today forget the troubles of my yesterday until it’s over

I surrender
I surrender for your love
As if we only got tonight

I surrender
I surrender for your love
As if we only got tonight

I surrender
I surrender for your love
As if we only got tonight

I surrender
I surrender for your love
As if we only got tonight
